

Pathways to Manufacturing Careers

Directions: After watching the Pathways to Manufacturing Careers video, track a manufacturing career that you could see yourself doing. Based on the career you have chosen, fill in the information below. Not sure where to get started? Check our Learn More for links to more information about careers and career pathways.

 Career of Interest:

What kind of certification or degree is required for this career?

How long does it take to acquire this degree or certification?

Find three Colleges or Programs in Connecticut that offer certifications or degrees for this career. Include the college or program and the certification or degree they offer.

What courses are required for this career? What skills are required for this career?

Find three Connecticut manufacturing companies that hire people for this career.

- _____
- _____
- _____

What is the average annual salary for this career?

